

CHARTER OF GOOD PRACTICE

Members of Animal Osteopathy Worldwide (AOW) commit to adhering to the following standards to benefit our profession and the global community we serve.

MISSION

AOW members implement their knowledge and skills to provide a personalized assessment and apply the most appropriate osteopathic care according to the particularities of each animal.

EQUAL CARE

AOW members guarantee all animals and their owners the same quality of care.

INTER-DISCIPLINARY REFERRAL

To obtain the best possible outcome, AOW members work closely with veterinary professionals and other therapists to complement osteopathic care.

CONFIDENTIALITY

AOW members guarantee the confidentiality and security of all client information.

PERSONAL EXAMPLE

AOW members make every effort to be an example of professional morality AND PROFESSIONALISM concerning clients, colleagues, other medical professions, and supervisory authorities.

SKILLS

AOW members advance their knowledge and skill set through continuing professional development courses and workshops.

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITIES

The animal osteopath has subscribed to all professional civil liability obligations according to the insurance contracts available in the country where he practices in the current state of law.
